From the Podium

In case you missed the July meeting, Brother Jack Campbell spoke to the group. Jack is a Business Agent for 134. His role is as an organizer. His talk was very informative, and many questions were asked. Always a sign of an engaged audience. Jack is also the Lieutenant Commander of the nascent Veterans Committee of LU 134, and he told us about this new committee. For information on the Veterans Committee go to LU134.org or the LU 134 app and click on the "Veterans" tab.

We had a great time on the Chicago Labor History Tour with many questions asked. Thanks to our tour guide LU 134 Sister Julia Berkowitz for a great event. Unfortunately, we were plagued with air conditioning issues on this bus which made for an uncomfortable ride.

Our guest speaker at our August 8th meeting will be Brother John Dalton. Brother Dalton is the Treasurer of 134 so bring your tough questions.

Don't forget to sign up for the John Cummins Memorial Golf Outing which is on the 18th of September at Old Oak Country Club.

In Solidarity,

Hale Landes

Labor History Around the World and Across America - August

8/12/1881---The National Brotherhood of Carpenters & Joiners is founded in Chicago in a gathering of 36 carpenters from 11 cities.

8/28/1918----Big Bill Haywood and 14 other members of the IWW (Industrial Workers of the World) were sentenced to 20 years prison for draft obstruction.

8/14/1980---Members of the upstart Polish union Solidarity seize the Lenin shipyard in Gdansk. Sixteen days later the government officially recognizes the union. Many consider the event the beginning of the end for the Iron Curtain.

8/15/1989---Gerry Horgan, chief steward of CWA Local 1103 and NYNEX striker in Valhalla, N.Y., is struck on the picket line by a car driven by the daughter of a plant manager and dies the following day. What was to become a 4-month strike over healthcare benefits was in its second week.

8/29/1996---Dancers at San Francisco's Lusty Lady Club vote 57-15 to be represented by SEIU Local 790. Their first union contract ratified eight months later, guaranteed work shifts, protection against arbitrary discipline, termination, automatic hourly wage increases, sick days, a grievance procedure, and removal of one-way mirrors from peep show booths.
